2008 Annual Juried Undergraduate Exhibition

Join the Department of Art at the University of Delaware in our annual celebration of student talent. Revealing the best of the artistic undergraduate work produced during the past year, the exhibition features a cross section of the Department and shows our interest in the education of artists.

Drop off work-
Tuesday April 22nd, 2008
8AM to 4PM
University Gallery,
Old College

Exhibition Dates:
April 30th to May 21st

Reception April 30th
5PM to 7PM

JUROR:
John Caperton
Curator, The Print Center

ALL University students are eligible (freshmen, sophomores, juniors, seniors and continuing ed) to submit works (4 works maximum), and are asked to consult with faculty concerning their submissions. Works must have been completed in Department of Art courses since April 2, 2007. Group pieces count as one entry for each artist.

Please note:

- Entry labels must be securely fastened to bottom or back of work
- The gallery does not provide hanging devices, and all 2D work must be ready for display. Wire or hanging brackets are required of framed work; Swiss clip systems are not acceptable.
- The gallery is unable to provide computers to display entries.
- Digital Work must be looped and play on a standard DVD player.
- Sculptural work must be self-supporting. 3D work set up in Art Studio Building or Taylor Hall requires two entry forms: one attached to the work and one turned in to the University Gallery by the deadline.
- Faculty and University Gallery Staff must be consulted for advice on monumental scale work, installations, and appropriate frames for 2D work.

University Museums Staff retains the option to exercise discretion if the work is deemed hazardous or unmanageable. Work not ready to exhibit and/or wet paintings will not be juried.

- WORKS NOT SELECTED FOR EXHIBITION MUST BE PICKED UP BETWEEN 2:30 AND 4:30PM, April 23. Works not picked up will be discarded.
- EXHIBITED WORKS MUST BE PICKED UP BY 12PM, May 22. Works not picked up will be discarded.
